DEDICATION

This book is respectfully dedicated to a man who is recognized not only as a fine teacher but a warm, understanding friend. His prankish smile and ready humor, his stimulating vitality, and his genuine interest in school activities, have endeared him to the hearts of every Willoughby High School student.

In appreciation of these outstanding qualities we dedicate the Lens to Mr. Chester B. Wike.

BOARD OF EDUCATION

Seated: L. B. Parks, M. Achterof, M. B. Cole.
Standing: J. B. Woodside, W. McLaughlin, F. M. Williams, J. T. Smith.

No large school system can function without the able leadership and co-operative effort of the superintendent and the board of education. Superintendent, Mr. J. B. Woodside, and the Willoughby-Eastlake School Board members worked long and sometimes inconvenient hours planning the future development of our schools. In recognition of their inestimable contributions we, the student body of Willoughby High School, offer a hearty "thank you" and extend our best wishes for a successful future.

The officers are: L. Beaumont Parks, president; F. M. Williams, vice president; J. T. Smith, clerk.

O. H. Farrar

The administration of Willoughby High School is to be complimented for the splendid way in which it managed the many difficult and sometimes confusing problems that are part of any normal school year. This year, the year of the split sessions, the sunrise classes, and the long afternoons posed many additional problems which needed prompt and accurate solutions. These perplexing difficulties were met and solved with the result that both students and faculty enjoyed a fine year free from disruption and conflict.

Principal O. H. Farrar, Assistant Principal Milan Stefanik, the deans Miss Janet Hallock and Mr. Arthur Holloway, are to be congratulated for foresight and effort on behalf of the entire student body.

CLASS OF 1957

The class of 1957 collectively has many memories of past experiences that have made our years at WHS exciting and enjoyable.

From the time we were tenth graders enjoying the unforgettable freshman-sophomore dance to our senior year and the wonderful night of the senior prom, our lives here in school have been filled with gratifying and memorable events.

What member of the graduating class could ever forget the junior year with the junior play, "We Shook the Family Tree," the sock hop, the beany sale, and the collection of tax stamps to raise the needed revenue for the prom?

Then came our senior year which was ushered in by the Senior Street Strut and the Senior Class Play. Senior night at the basketball game and the dance afterward, and the senior skating party helped to produce funds for the loveliest night of the year, the senior prom. A wonderful meal at the senior banquet brought our senior year to a close.

CLASS OF 1958

The juniors, already secure on the Willoughby scholastic ladder recall in brief many of the highlights that made this year at the high school a memorable one.

The Junior Class Dance, held in April, was probably the outstanding feature of the social year. To obtain money for this affair, the juniors gave a square dance, held a tax-stamp drive, and sponsored a dance.

The leader of this busy group was Tom June. Assisting him was Burton Schwartz, vice-president. Busily keeping minutes was class secretary, Irene Germ. Class treasurer, Betty Book, kept the class well in the black.

These students are looking forward to next year when they will be THE SENIORS.

LADDER OF SUCCESS

Sophomore Council

Seated: C. Crawford, N. Neubacher, H. Lohmeyer, A. Cooke, E. Huey, P. Petrovich, J. Spoonamore, C. Taylor, P. Greer. Standing: D. Atkin, E. Richards, B. Wendell, D. Gogarn, W. Orloff, A. Lambo.

CLASS OF 1959

Here we have our underclassmen. They are still waiting patiently at the bottom of our ladder for the juniors to "scoot."

Bob Bourquard is the president of the anxious sophomores. Vice-president of the class is Louis Cicek. Writing the minutes of the class meetings is little Dawn Harris. Evelyn Eby, treasurer, is busily counting money made on the Sophomore Dance, their biggest project. The sophomores also had a St. Patrick's Dance.

The sophomore officers and council are aided in the management of the class by Miss Marian Riemann, class advisor.

LENS STAFF

Putting out a year book is not an easy job. There are pictures to be taken, articles to be written, and always, a dead-line to be met. While the members of the staff are working on these things, the salesmen are doing their best to sell the books.

Editor, Phyllis Patterson, and advisor, Mr. James Smeed, saw to it that all jobs were completed. Mr. Richard Miller was in charge of the Lens salesmen.

Even though it was hard work and often discouraging, we had a lot of good times and were really thrilled when the book started to take form.

J. Smeed, Advisor.

Mr. A. S. Holloway, Advisor.

The purpose of the Student Council is to stimulate the desire in every student to become a first class citizen and to inspire the student body to work together. This year, the tremendous school spirit built up before the Mentor game during School Spirit Week was a good example of the fine work of this important organization. The sale of toothbrushes and decals to help furnish the student lounge of North High was another big Student Council project. The Homecoming Dance, the talent show, and many after game dances were sponsored by the group.

This year's officers are Jim Rauker, president; Bob Doyle, vice president; Judy Rogers, secretary; and Ann Alpeter, treasurer. Mr. Arthur Holloway is the club advisor.

Sixteen Write '30' to Journalism Careers

Cubs, Veterans Conclude Year's 'Searchlight'

Wednesday, June 5, WHS — Sixteen journalism II students today wrote the traditional "30" to the end of their 1956-57 newspaper careers. All but four bid final farewell to the SEARCHLIGHT.

The group published 34 Wednesday editions under the guidance of Mr. Leonard Slominski. Heading the student publication staff were editorial board members Sally Farran, Nancy Williams, and Bob McLean who rotated the individual responsibilities on a one-week-in-three basis.

Beginning the year as reporters were Carolyn Bomgardner, Gail York, Karen Wright, Cindy Bouton, Audrey Bailey, Donna Hogg, Linda Donovan, Gaynol Crocker, and Roberta Widgren. Sport writers Carolyn Blazy and Vickey Tyler and artist Suzanne Hengst were forced by combination of circumstances to retire from journalism at half year.

Cub reporters Hannah Rotman and Gloria Hambrecht, artist Mary Ginevra, and sports writer Gary Perkins joined the staff at the beginning of the second semester, having completed journalism I training.

Students OK PULSE; Seek WHS Lifeblood

Sometime before the end of the academic year — probably in May — 'PULSE,' a general literary magazine written by WHS students, will make its first appearance. The new school publication, in the rumor mill for two years, was officially born last Thursday when students overwhelmingly indicated their support in a school-wide survey.

As early Monday machinery had already begun to grind to seek out talent and beat the publicity drums, and posters carrying the 'PULSE' message began making their appearance in the halls today.

Of the 716 students polled only 74 said they would not be interested in the magazine at any cost. The balance indicated their approval, and 323 students even thought they would like to see the magazine oftener than once a semester.

FRIENDSHIP CLUB

"Travel the U. S. with Us" was the theme of the Friendship Club this year. The girls started their tour of the U. S. with the Texas Roundup (Big Sister, Little Sister Party); the parties following were the Tennessee Jamboree (Informal Initiation), Pa. and Me. (Father-Daughter Picnic), Home for the Holidays (Christmas Party), Miss Debutante (Formal Initiation), Colonial Cotillion (Formal), Minnie and Paul (Hi-Y, F. C. Party), ALL US party, and ending with 5th Ave. Fashions (Mother-Daughter Tea).

A major change made in the club this year was the requirement that all new initiates complete an act of service before being allowed to join.

The tour was guided by Sally Farran, president; Judy Rogers, vice president; Judy Stendel, secretary; Priscilla Ruddick, treasurer; and co-advisors, Miss Adele Knight and Miss Marian Riemann.

The Junior Council on World Affairs, meeting the second Wednesday of each month, is open to juniors and to seniors. This organization, sponsored by the Cleveland Council on World Affairs (all of whose meetings being open to the junior members) is affiliated through the Council with similar groups throughout the Greater Cleveland area. These groups meet together in an annual spring meeting which takes the form of a mock United Nations General Assembly where groups of students act as delegates from member states. The experience here gained in the exercise of the niceties of parliamentary law, the experience of debate during the sponsorship of resolutions, is interesting and valuable.

Monthly programs in the past have consisted of panel discussions, debates by outsiders, the interviewing of visitors to, or recent USA residents from, other countries, and of timely movies. These activities showed appeal to those students interested in widening or deepening their knowledge of world politics.

The officers of this group are: Donna Hogg, president; Laurine Purola, vice-president; Betty Book, secretary; Linda Thomas, social chairman and John Matz, program chairman.

VARSITY CLUB

The Varsity Club, whose membership consists of Varsity letter winners, contributed much atmosphere to the W.H.S. scene this year by selling colorful book bags, sweatshirts and caps.

Other activities included attending a Brown's football game, preparing a Christmas basket and holding an initiation.

This year's officers are: Pres., Jim Rauker; V.P., Junior Orick; Sec., Harold Hendershot; and Treas., Joe Thompson.

MAINTENANCE

With the half day sessions in progress these people had an exceptionally busy year. In spite of the added difficulties everything ran as smoothly as before.

If early risers complained, they should have thought of their faithful bus drivers who had to rise at least a half hour before them.

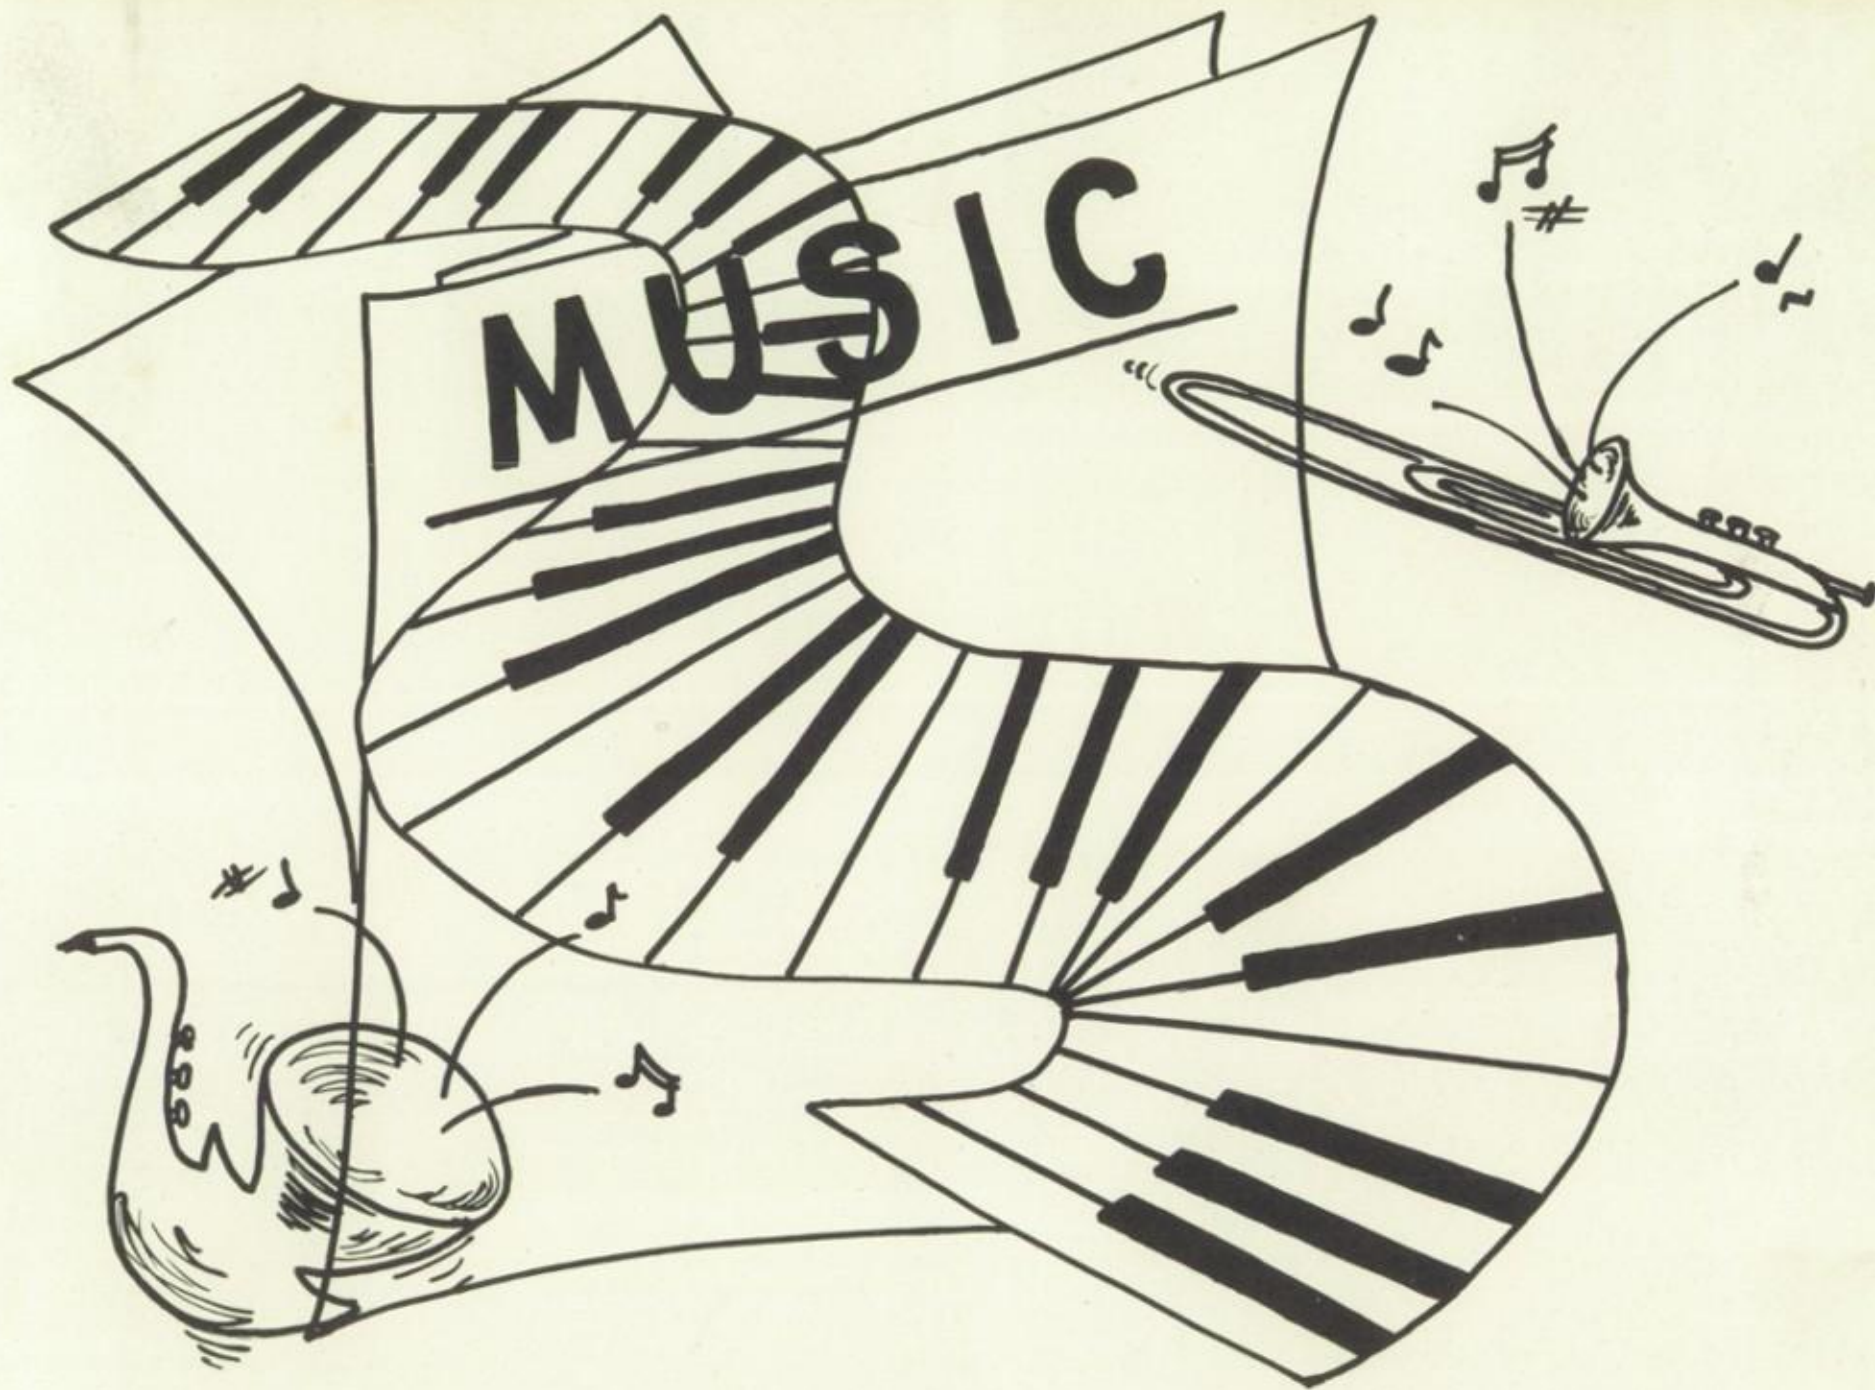

Our clean sidewalks and our fresh green lawns will always stand tribute to our maintenance staff.

Willoughby High School's Concert Band, one of the finest in Ohio, gives a Spring Concert and appears in the Christmas program with the choral groups each year.

The Concert Band also plays for many other events, including a combined concert at Bay Village High School.

The band competes each year in the district contest and always does extremely well.

Candy sales, endless practicing, and lots of fun were the keynotes and highlights of the 1957 Concert Band's year.

Officers of the Concert Band are: Linda Donovan, president; Bob Mellen, vice-president; Gail Daskocil, secretary; Dennis Atkins, treasurer.

OUR NATIONAL ANTHEM

Flashing orange and black uniforms, high stepping white bucks, and sparkling instruments denote the Willoughby High School Marching Band.

The band's sixty members, directed by Charles D. Ruddick, assisted by Raymond Rinaldi and Miss Jean Kelly, were led in each of their performances by four peppy majorettes: Priscilla Ruddick, Linda Saler, Diane Radebaugh, and Pat McLaughlin, and drum major, Wayne Makowski.

The band started the season with a memorable trip to Florida to compete in the Lion's Club Convention Parade.

The band members and directors also attended Camp Chibiabos at Doylestown, Ohio. Here they learned and practiced the steps essential to the clever formations put on at each football game.

The officers for the Marching Band are President, Linda Donovan; Vice-president, Bob Mellen; Secretary, Gail Daskocil; and Treasurer, Dennis Atkins.

TRACK TEAM

JOHN KOST, COACH.

In his first year as Willoughby High School track coach, John Kost developed an interesting and highly spirited team. The W. H. S. "Cindermen," high in competitive spirit compiled a winning record, scoring five wins while suffering three defeats.

The high spots of the season included a third place at the annual Mentor Relays and a fourth spot at the difficult Euclid Relays.

The Ranger record for 1956 was:

The 1956 Ranger tennis squad marked the school's third entry in interscholastic racquet competition, but the record belies their "youth."

Coach Ken Potter's boys won all their regular league games but to Shaker Heights in the city playoffs. In independent play, the squad won three out of four, losing only to crackerjack Cleveland Heights. There was another but no-count loss, an exhibition defeat at the hands of Muskingham College, 5 to 2.

BASEBALL TEAM

Despite the fact that only three lettermen returned to diamond warfare in 1956, Coach Stan Foster's Rangers captured the Greater Cleveland Conference for the fifth time in six years, compiling as they did, a 9-1 league record.

Winning individual honors for the high-riding team was Doug Pringle, who took over the lion's share of the pitching duties and won a place for himself on All-Conference, All-Scholastic, and All-State teams. Also winning distinction were shortstop Hal Hendershot, second basemen George Korpi, and outfielder John MacIlwaine.
